DFSNZ are running a series of Webinars as part of our consultation process regarding the 2021 Sports Anti-Doping Rules (SADR).

We are planning to have three Zoom sessions during the week starting 2 November. These sessions will give us a chance to discuss the main changes between the 2020 and 2021 SADR. There will also be an opportunity to ask questions of us or provide feedback.

The sessions would be predominantly the same material and stakeholders would only need attend one of the three sessions. There is no expectation that all three would need to be attended.

These are not compulsory for stakeholders to attend. They are just another way we are offering interested parties a chance to be informed of the main changes to the SADR and provide us with your thoughts.

Sign in details for three Zoom sessions below. The sessions will also be recorded so you can request a recording after the webinar.

There is no requirement to register. Just sign in on the day and we will see you there.

In the meantime, feel free to send in any feedback you have regarding the proposed 2021 SADR to feedback@drugfreespot.org.nz prior to the end of the consultation period on 11 November 2020.
